

Mastering Family Childcare Recordkeeping and Taxes

Tom Copeland

TOM COPELAND is the nation's leading trainer, author and advocate on the business of family child care since 1981.

From 1981 to 2009 Tom worked at Resources for Child Caring in Minnesota, where he was the director of Redleaf National Institute for 15 years.

Tom has written nine books on the business of family child care published by Redleaf Press, a division of Resources for Child Caring.

Tom was on the board of directors of First Children's Finance, a non-profit organization providing low interest loans and consulting and technical assistance to help family child care providers succeed as a business. They operate in Minnesota, Iowa, Michigan, North and South Dakota, Kansas, Missouri and Texas.

Tom graduated from Macalester College (BA) in 1972 and from William Mitchell College of Law (JD) in 1980. Tom lives in St. Paul, Minnesota with his wife, Diane, and two cats, Duke and Ella.

Date: Saturday, September 9, 2017

Location: Butler County Educational Service Center

400 North Erie Blvd., Suite A
Conference Room B

Time: 8:30 AM – 12:30 PM

Check-in and light breakfast 8:00 – 8:25 AM

Presenter: Tom Copeland

Tom is a licensed attorney and has presented hundreds of business workshops for family child care providers across the country. He answers thousands of calls and emails each year to help providers, tax professionals and trainers understand complex business and tax issues.

Cost: FREE to all licensed family childcare providers in Butler, Montgomery, and Preble Counties. All others will pay $25 to attend.

Register: Visit: bit.ly/BCESC-Copeland

Email: register@bcesc.org

Space is limited to 50 participants.

Partners in Shaping Lives.

INTEGRITY

FAMILY-FOCUSED

COMPASSION

RESPECT